DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on 4/18/2005. These drawings are accepted.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1, 3, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is not clearly understood since "said rib is embedded" does not specify into what object the rib is embedded.

Claims 3 and 7 are not clearly understood and are believed to be misleading because the word, "higher", is used in a manner that is not consistent with the normal meaning when describing the claimed "rib". The claims must be amended to reflect the comments submitted in the remarks filed on 4/18/2005, particularly "the rib 12 extending from the dry side of the door 10 further than the thickness of the wrapping layers 14".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 3, 5, 7, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Blomeling et al. (US2002/0180236 A1).

Blomeling et al. disclose a motor vehicle door having two panels (3,4). Panel (3) is the wet side door panel while panel (4) is the dry side door panel. Door panel (4) wraps around the edges of the wet side door panel (3). Figure 3 shows a rib (6) embedded into a foam material (5). The rib forms a seal with the foam material that is capable of reducing moisture from contacting the wrapping layers. The rib (6) is shown in Figure 3 to extend away from panel (3) further than the thickness of panel (4). The rib (6) is embedded between a pair of opposing members of end portion (5') that contact sides (8) of the rib (6).

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
